Caught in Mob.

Witnesses and lawyers were caught in the rioting mob and held until police could extricate them. Meanwhile it was impossible to go on with the proceed-

Assistant District-Attorney Gray, who was endeavoring to get near the couriroom, was threatened with arrest by policeman who failed to recognize him. The policeman passed Mr. Gray along to Sergeant Walsh, who shouted:

"Take him down and lock him up it he makes any further trouble." When the prosecutor was identified Sergeant Walsh apologized.

Donlin was an easy cut with a pound to under the pound to mounce to Molbayre. Strang waited for a single over third, but was forced for four bad ones. All over very hand-out and out and over very hand-out and out a Batch made a brilliant stop of Merier's sizzling bounce. Dahlen raised a nice fiv to Lunnley. Devlin was lucky and walke. Devlin went out very e.s.y stealing, Ritter to Lewis—a beautiful throw. No runs.

Dobbs got away with a safe bun that Gilbert threw over Bowernan's head, advancing Doobs to second. Babb sacrificed, McGinnity to Bowernan. Dobbs out, runring off Ritter's raise, Dobbs out, runring off Ritter's reached third. Mc Intyre field to Donlin. NO RUNS.

Powers opened up with a safe smash to left for one bag. Coakley in attempting to bunt popped a foul to Conroy. Powers then stole second training.

ckard pounded a two-bagger to e. Lumley popped to Donlin. Batch a victim of Chase, unassisted. Seyhold went out, Gilbert to Bowerman, decision so close that Johnstone roundly hissed. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Bresnahan h-listed to Sheckard.
Mettes followed suit. Dahlen won a pass. He stole second. Devim struck out. NO RUNS.
Lewis could not beat his bunt to Devlin. Dobbs was out via Dahlen and Bowerman. Baabb filed to Mertes. NO RUNS.

Cilbert fanned. Bowerman filed to Dobbs. McGinnity died by a wonderful catch of Dobbs, who ran a block to right centre fence. NO RUNS. After struck thrice in vain. McIntyre was equally helpiess at the bat. Sheckard was allowed to walk. He was forced by Lumley, Devin to Gibert. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Donlin cracked a single to centre, Strang's hoist fell to Dobbs. Donlin was forced by Bresnahan, Babb mo Owens. If resnahan was forced by Mertes, Lewis to Owens. No RUNS.

Batch made his second hit. He took second on Bresnahan's bad throw Owens sacrificed, Bowerman to Gibbert. Lewis fanned at three wide ones. Dobbs went out, Dahlen to Bewerman. NO RUNS.
